

Chapter 4

DISTRICT COMMITTEES

District committees assist district officers in accomplishing district goals.

Lions Clubs International officially recognizes 17 committees. Appoint the most qualified individuals as district committee chairpersons. You may appoint other chairpersons for special district projects. The official committees include:

District Convention
District Cultural and Community Activities
District Diabetes Awareness and Action
District Environment
District Hearing Preservation, Awareness and Action
District Honorary
District Information Technology
District International Relations
District Leo Club *
District Lions ALERT
District Lions Quest *
District Lions Services for Children
District Peace Poster Contest
District Public Relations and Lions Information
District Sight Preservation, Awareness and Action
District Youth (Lions Opportunities for Youth)
District Youth Camp and Exchange

Chairpersons of committees with an asterisk mark (*) serve for three years subject to annual confirmation. Do not appoint these chairpersons unless there is a vacancy.

The LCIF District Coordinator serves a three year term and is appointed by the LCIF Multiple District Coordinator in consultation with the district governor. The District Coordinator is not an official committee position, but should be invited to attend cabinet meetings.

Committee Chairperson Selection

Appoint your committee chairpersons carefully. Committee chairpersons should possess:

- Respect in the district
- Knowledge of the clubs in the district
- Interest and knowledge about the position being offered
- Strong personal drive with proven abilities to get things done
- Ability to work well with others
- Ability to communicate

Information for most district committee chairpersons is available on the association's website.

Convention Chairperson

International convention, multiple district and district conventions require coordination and promotion through the district.

Chairperson Duties

- Educate and motivate club members to participate in conventions at all levels of Lionism
- Urge clubs to appoint an active club convention chairperson
- Communicate with clubs using all available sources such as district governor's newsletter, visitations to clubs, zone and district meetings, special mailings, the Lion Magazine, and LCI website
- Inform clubs of the arrangements, programs and costs of each Lions convention
- Manage and coordinate district conventions and conferences
- Manage and coordinate delegation events at the international convention

Cultural and Community Activities Chairperson

The district cultural and community activities chairperson encourages clubs in the district to develop Lions Crew at Work and Lions Cultural and Community Activities projects.

Introduced in 2008, the Lions Crew at Work Program encourages clubs to undertake projects that physically enhance local facilities such as a food pantry, shelter for the homeless, shelter for domestic abuse victims, a community center, a playground, or a recreational camp for disabled children.

Introduced in 2000, Lions Cultural and Community Activities encourage clubs to undertake cultural projects that foster local customs such as concerts, theater productions, art exhibits, and handcrafts.

Chairperson Duties

- Become familiar with the Information for Chairpersons section on the association's website;
- Identify appropriate projects for your district;
- Visit clubs. Explain the importance of community projects that demonstrate the "We Serve" motto. Encourage clubs to appoint a cultural and community activities chairperson;
- Keep the governor and the international office informed of district activities. Provide a summary report to successor.

Diabetes Awareness and Action Chairperson

In March 1984, the Diabetes Awareness Program became a major commitment of the association. The program name was expanded to: Diabetes Awareness and Action. The main objective of the program is to reduce the number of new cases of blindness caused by diabetic retinopathy through education, detection and research. Diabetic retinopathy is a leading cause of new cases of adult blindness. There is an emerging global epidemic of diabetes that can be traced back to rapid increases in overweight, obesity and physical inactivity. Diabetes is a “silent killer;” every 10 seconds a person dies of a diabetes-related cause. More than 285 million people worldwide live with diabetes.

Chairperson Duties

- Become familiar with the Information for Chairpersons section on the association’s website;
- Consider the opportunities to utilize LCIF Core 4 grant funding for a qualifying district diabetes project;
- Encourage organization of club-level or a district-level Strides: Lions Walk for Diabetes Awareness to help educate the public about diabetes and receive the Strides banner patch award;
- Participating in the Lions Eye Health Program (LEHP);
- Utilize current resources from official diabetes associations to become knowledgeable about diabetes and diabetic retinopathy;
- Visit clubs. Encourage them to appoint a club diabetes awareness chairperson;
- Promote club awareness of the opportunity to earn the annual “New Horizons: In Diabetes Education” award;
- Partner with local diabetes associations and health care professionals;
- Take the lead in planning and facilitating diabetes awareness presentations for forums, zone meetings, district and multiple district conventions;
- Stress to clubs the importance of helping educate the public about diabetic retinopathy and action steps needed to reduce the new cases of blindness caused by diabetic retinopathy;
- Encourage clubs to carry out joint diabetes screening projects with other health care organizations, as well as combining a test for diabetic retinopathy with glaucoma testing whenever such activity is undertaken;
- Encourage clubs to participate in the following diabetes-related events: Diabetes Awareness Month (November), World Diabetes Day (November 14) and World Sight Day (second Thursday in October);
- Keep the governor and the international office informed of district activities;
- Provide a summary report to successor.

Environment Chairperson

The district environment chairperson encourages clubs in the district to implement Lions Green Team projects such as: community clean-up, tree planting, recycling, and environmental education. The chairperson is also responsible for encouraging clubs to participate in the Lions Environmental Photo Contest.

Chairperson Duties

- Become familiar with the Information for Chairpersons section on the association's website;
- Identify appropriate Lions Green Team projects for the district;
- Meet with Lion leaders to develop a coordinated Lions Green Team plan for the year;
- Encourage clubs to participate in the annual Lions Environmental Photo Contest. Ensure that the selected district photo is submitted to the council chairperson by January 15;
- Visit clubs to explain the importance of protecting our natural resources, provide information about activity planning resources, and solicit feedback and suggestions;
- Encourage clubs to appoint an environment chairperson;
- Keep the governor and the international office informed of district activities;
- Provide a summary report to successor.

Hearing Preservation, Awareness and Action Chairperson

Hearing Conservation and Work with the Deaf became a major Lions activity in 1971. The program name was updated to: Hearing Preservation, Awareness and Action thereby broadening the Lion's base of service.

Chairperson Duties

- Become familiar with the Information for Chairpersons section on the association's website;
- Consult and coordinate with the Multiple District Hearing Chairperson to maximize the outreach of the district's and multiple district's action plan for the program;
- Utilize current resources and information gathered from official associations for people who are deaf or hard of hearing;
- Implement a district plan of action for a public education and awareness program to understand the needs of persons with hearing and/or speech impairments with the goal of improving their quality of life;
- Encourage support of schools, rehabilitation centers, hearing ear dogs and support services for persons who are deaf or hard of hearing;
- Encourage support of recreational camps for the deaf and hard of hearing persons;
- Participate in the Lions Hearing Aid Recycling Program (HARP);

- Cooperate with schools, professional organizations and agencies in organizing and conducting hearing screenings for children and adults;
- Consult with people in the community who are deaf or hard of hearing and convey information concerning their needs to clubs in the district;
- Visit clubs and suggest appropriate activities such as:
 - Organizing group screenings to detect hearing loss
 - Supporting research on ear diseases
 - Encouraging the collection of used hearing aids
 - Supporting Lions Hearing Aid Recycling
 - Providing volunteer assistance or financial support to a hearing ear dog school
- Keep the governor and the international office informed of district activities;
- Provide a summary report to successor.

Honorary Chairperson

The district governor may appoint a District Governor's Honorary Committee composed of past international officers who are members in good standing of clubs within the district. This committee meets when and as called upon by the district governor. It acts under the direction of the district governor in the promotion of harmony throughout the district. The chairperson of this committee attends meetings of the cabinet when requested by the district governor.

Chairperson Duties

- Promote harmony through the district;
- Perform duties as requested by the district governor;
- Meet when called upon by the district governor to do so;
- Take problems assigned by the governor and recommend solutions after careful study.

Information Technology Chairperson

As the fast advancement of new technology is affecting every aspect of our daily lives in every corner of the earth, each district is encouraged to stay in the main stream of the digital world by appointing an Information Technology Chairperson.

Chairperson Duties

- Create and maintain the district's home page;
- Establish communication system through e-mail between members and other clubs;
- Assist clubs in submitting their Monthly Membership Report, Service Activity Report and assigning current year and next year officers via MyLCI. Clubs that do not use MyLCI can submit their monthly membership report and their officer assignment by sending the paper forms to headquarters (MMR and PU101). NOTE: The MyLCI website does not apply to those multiple districts that are presently using their own database.

- Show clubs how to obtain the association's official publications, newsletters, directories, and many other Lions information materials through the Internet;
- Develop the district's record-keeping system on the computer;
- Work on other innovative projects;
- Monitor club websites and publications for use of official logos only;
- Remind clubs with websites that only members should have access to member information. Due to privacy policies, the general public should not have access to membership names and/or addresses. Club officer information is the only exception.
- Encourage and assist clubs with using the e-Clubhouse website;
- Work with the association's IT Division in gathering requirements for system improvement, participating in system testing and being involved in technology-related activities.

International Relations Chairperson

The International Relations Chairperson's role is to encourage clubs to participate in activities in support of the third Purpose of Lions Clubs International: "to create and foster a spirit of understanding among the peoples of the world."
