

Ice Breaker - Line Up

Summary: Use this activity to break the monotony of long periods of sitting, and you'll find participants finding out about each other too.

Objective: Energizer

Materials Required: None

Time Limit: 5 to 7 minutes

How it Works:

1. Organize participants into at least two groups.
2. Tell participants that in Line Up, they will have a chance to learn things about one another they may never think to ask.
3. Give these instructions:
  - a. This is a group competition. The Group Leader will give the instructions for groups to line up in a particular way.
  - b. Your group should get in line as quickly as possible.
  - c. When a group is lined up, all group members should clap, hum, or give some sort of signal to indicate they are finished.
  - d. The group that finishes first is the winner of the round

Line up ideas:

- Line up in order of age as a Lion Member.
- Line up in order by shoe size
- Line up by length of arm's reach
- Line up in order by the number of siblings you have
- Line up in order alphabetically by favorite color
